PACK RATS

In a busy airport, rodent travellers rush to their destinations, whether a business trip, vacation, or visit to family. But suddenly, a collision! Suitcases explode open and clothes are strewn across the airport floor.

There's no time to waste! Gather the items to suit your destination and fit them in your suitcase before you miss your plane. Will you be the rat to most efficiently fill your bags before takeoff?

How to Play

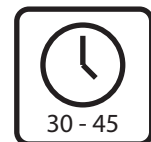

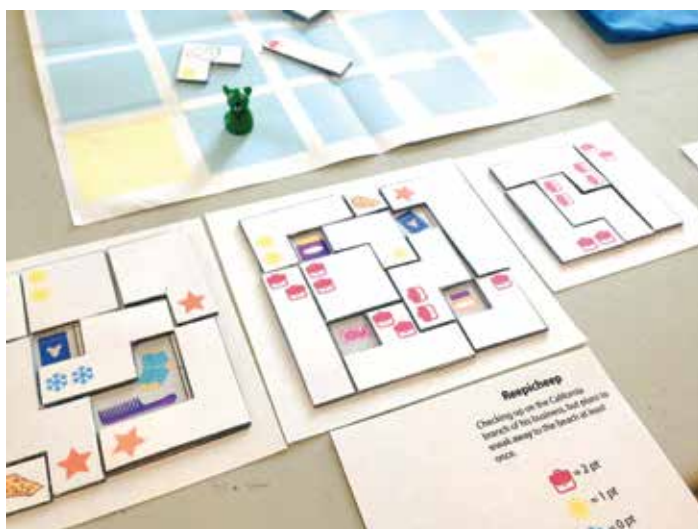

Using a common board, players take turns selecting polyomino tiles and fitting them into unique suitcases, earning points not only for meeting their character's travel needs, but also for fulfilling achievements available to all players.
